Assessments:

Within each unit students will be asked to do a variety of writing assignments. There will be periodic quizzes over content. The majority of formal assessment will be done at the end of each unit. At that time students will be given a unit test that consists of 20-40 Multiple choice-type questions. These multiple-choice questions will be centered on images, graphs and quotes directly connected to unit content. They will also have 2-4 short answer question over each unit and on long essay or DBQ over each unit.

First Semester

Unit 1: (8-9 weeks) 1450-1648

Reading pages : McKay 338-477

Sub-Unit A: Renaissance

Black Death: Causes, Reactions, Various points of View, and Impact

- Read excerpts from DeCameron (p.145, Sherman col. 1)
- Read secondary source: "The Black Death: A Socioeconomic Perspective" by Meiss (p 153, Sherman vol I) and "A Psychological Perspective of the Black Death" by William Langer (p 154, Sherman vol I)
- Students will create a cause and effect graphic organizer that examines the causes and effects of the Black death, keeping in mind all the sources they have read.

-Historical thinking skills I, 1 II. 5, III. 5-6, IV. 8-9

- Learning Objective: SP-3

100 Years' War: Causes, Major Developments and Outcomes

Changes in the Church: Babylonian Captivity, Great Schism, and Impact of Church and Church Authority

- Read Primary Sources 1. "Attack on the Papacy: The Conciliar Movement" (p. 142 WC) and 2. "Manual of the Inquisitor" (p 143, Sherman vol I)
- Students will assess these documents using APPARTS (Author, Place and Time, Prior knowledge, Audience, Reason, The Main Idea, Significance).
- Using premade events cards, students will create a chronological listing of major events that occurred in the church. They will use those events to create a timeline.

-Historical Thinking Skills: I. 1, II. 4-5

-Learning Objective: SP-3

[CR1a]- This course includes a college level text book

[CR2]- Each of the course historical periods receives explicit attention.

[CR1b]-The course included diverse primary sources, including written documents, maps, images, quantitative data, and works of art.

[CR1c]-This course includes multiple secondary courses written by historians or scholars interpreting the past.

[CR7]- The course provides opportunities for students to examine relationships between causes and effects of events or processes. –Historical causation

[CR6]-The course provides opportunities for students analyze evidence about the past from diverse sources, such as written documents, maps, visual sources, and quantitative data.- Appropriate use of historical evidence

[CR3]-Students are provided opportunities to apply learning objectives in each of the five themes throughout the course

Social Unrest: Peasant Uprisings, Ethnic Tensions

- Read Primary Sources: 1. “The Rebellion of 1381” by Sir John Froissart (p. 143, Sherman Vol. I) and 2. Image – “The Triumph of Death” (pp. 149-150 WC)
- Secondary source: The crisis of the Late Middle ages by Francis Oakley (p. 152 WC)
- Analyze these sources using APPARTS and secondary source analysis. Based on these sources and the other information from this Sub-Unit, answer the following question with a thesis and essay outline: Which factors most greatly contributed to the crisis of the Late Middle Ages?

- Historical Thinking Skills: I. 1-7

Origins of the Renaissance: Political, Social, Cultural, and Economic

- Read excerpts from Petrarch (p. 6, Perry) and Study of Greek Literature and Humans Educational Program by Brunì (p. 7, Perry)

State of the Church in the 16th Century: Corruption, Ignorance, and Abuse of Power

Origins of the Reformation: Christian Humanism, Martin Luther, Zwingli

- Students will read excerpts from John Tetzel (p. 174, Sherman vol. I) and Excerpts of Luther’s writings (p. 20, Perry). Based on these readings, students will generate a list of initial concerns regarding the Catholic Church and the new ideas being proposed by Luther. They will then answer the following questions:
 1. How were these new ideas in conflict with the Catholic Church?
 2. How were these new ideas in conflict with the Holy Roman Empire?

[CR1b]- The course included diverse primary sources, including written documents, maps, images, quantitate data, and works of art.

[CR1c]-This course includes multiple secondary courses written by historians or scholars interpreting the past.

[CR1b]- The course included diverse primary sources, including written documents, maps, images, quantitate data, and works of art

[CR1b]- The course included diverse primary sources, including written documents, maps, images, quantitate data, and works of art

[CR3]-Students are provided opportunities to apply learning objectives in each of the five themes throughout the course

[CR9]-The course provides opportunities for students to explain and analyze different models of historical periodization

[CR3]-Students are provided opportunities to apply learning objectives in each of the five themes throughout the course.

[CR12]- The course provides opportunities for students to recognize and explain disparate, sometimes contradictory evidence from primary sources and/or secondary works about the past-Synthesis

3. What characteristics of the Holy Roman Empire made it the most likely location for the reformation to begin successfully?

-Historical Thinking Skills: I. 1-3, II. 5, III. 6-7, IV. 8-9

-Learning Objective: OS-11

Impact of the Reformation: Social Unrest, Role of Marriage, and Sexuality, Political Changes, Calvinism/other Protestant Ideas, Catholic Reforms, Wars of Religion, Witch Hunts

Impact of the Reformation (Social Unrest, New Ideas):

- Students will read “Luther’s reaction to Peasant Revolts” (p.176, Sherman). They will also read “What was the Reformation” by Euan Cameron, “A Political Interpretation of the Reformation” by G.R. Elton (p.182, Sherman vol. 1), “Woman in the Reformation” by Marilyn Boxer and Jean H. Quartaert (p.185, Sherman vol. 1). While reading these documents, students will use APPARTS on the primary source and take article notes over the secondary sources. Using those notes, they will have small group discussions to generate a list of important social changes that occurred as a result of the Reformation
- Students will then be asked to read “Institutes of the Christian Religion: Predestination” (p. 177 Sherman Vol I). After reading the doc Students will compare and contrast the teachings of Calvin, Luther, and the Catholic Church

[CR10]- The course provides opportunities for students to compare historical developments across or within societies in various chronological and geographical contexts- Comparison

-Historical Thinking Skills I. 1-3, II. 4-5

-Learning Objective: OS-3

Impact (Catholic Reforms):

- Students will re-examine the causes of the Reformation. They will also read “Constitution of the Society of Jesus” (p. 178, Sherman) and “the way of Perfection” (p. 178 Sherman vol. I) Using these resources, students will explain how action taken by the Catholic Church addresses or didn’t address the initial causes of the Reformation.

[CR3]-Students are provided opportunities to apply learning objectives in each of the five themes throughout the course

- Historical Thinking Skills: I 1-2, I. 5, III. 7, IV. 8

- Learning Objective: OS-3

Impact (Wars of Religion)

- Students will be asked to compare and contrast the causes and impact of the Wars of Religion in France, Spain, and England, both in discussion and in a graphic organizer, and finally, in an essay.

-Historical Thinking Skills: I. 1, II. 4-5

-Learning Objectives: SP-2, SP-3, SP-11

Sub-Unit C: Exploration and Conquest

Before Columbus: Trading States, Role of Europe, Role of Ottoman, and Persian Empires

- Students will use their textbooks to make a chart that includes the following information: What was involved in trade, and what roles did each country, state, or empire involved play in trade at that time?

Causes of Exploration: Economic, Political, Social, and Technology

- Using their textbooks, students will answer the following questions: What motivated Europeans to explore? What allowed them to explore?

Empire Building/Life in the Colonies: Spanish, Portuguese, French, and English

- Students will examine a map (p. 194, Sherman vol 1) showing the areas explored and countries involved. In small groups, they will give explanations for who went where and the impact that these journeys had on the establishment of trade and colonies. They will then generate a timeline showing major explorers and the countries they were exploring for.

Impact of Exploration and Conquest: Political Impact, Indigenous People, Columbian Exchange, Economic Impact, Changing Attitudes and Beliefs Regarding Race and Culture

- Students will examine the following primary sources: “The Chronicle of the Discovery and Conquest of Guinea” (p. 188, Sherman), “Letter to Lord Sanchez, 1493” (p. 189, Sherman)

- vol 1), "Memoirs: The Aztecs" (p. 190, Sherman vol 1), "Letter to Charles V: Finance and politics" (p. 191, Sherman vol 1), "The conquests of Mexico as Seen by the Aztecs" (p. 193, Sherman vol 1) For each source students will use APPARTS. They will also read the following secondary sources: "The expansion of Europe by Reed" (p 195 Sherman vol I) and "Red, White, and Black: The Peoples of Early America" By Gary Nash (p. 197 Sherman vol I). After reading these sources, students will be asked to construct a chart that demonstrates the point of view held by Europeans, non-Europeans, and modern day historians. They will then be asked to write summaries of the different POV represented.
- Final Activity: Students will be asked to complete DBQ 4 in their textbook (p. a-16, McKay)

-Historical Thinking Skills: I. 1-3, II. 7, IV. 8-9

- Learning Objectives: INT-1, INT-11

Sub-Unit D: Absolutism and New Thinking

Thirty Years' War: Causes and Outcomes

- Students will generate a list of causes of the Thirty Years war and then have a small group discussion regarding how the causes changes of the "phases" of the war. They will then examine maps, depicting political and religious division, main war zones, and population change during the Thirty years war (p 207-208, Sherman vol 1). In addition, students will examine a map of Europe after the Treaty of Westphalia (p. 484, McKay)
